

Linda Lorelle

A two-time Emmy Award-winning journalist and two-time winner of the American Women in Radio and Television's prestigious Gracie Award, Linda Lorelle anchored the evening news at KPRC, Houston's NBC affiliate, for nearly 17 years. Since opening her media firm in 2009, the Stanford (B.A.) and Mizzou journalism graduate (M.A.) has garnered an extensive roster of Fortune 500 clients, NGOs, and educational institutions, and hosts the award-winning podcast, Our Voices Matter. In February 2024, she launched Civil Dialogues with Jean Becker, former chief of staff to President George H.W. Bush. The democracy project partners with presidential library foundations and the Kinder Institute on Constitutional Democracy to host town halls across the nation, providing a safe space for Americans to express views on difficult topics without judgment. Her non-profit, Linda Lorelle Scholarship Fund, has awarded nearly $5 million in college scholarships to more than 400 Houston area students over the last 35 years.
